THE FRIEND.

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

VOLUME LIX.

PHILADELPHIA:
PRINTED BY WILLIAM H. PILE.
1886.

XUM

INDEX.

Adelphi school, Philada. Report of the managers of, the, 239.
Advertisements. On misleading, 235.
Adversity blessed, 350.
Aerolite discovered in Washington Co., Pa. Account of, 382.
Africa. Account of the establishment of the "Free State of Congo" in, 73. 81. 89. 97. 105.
Notice of Bishop Taylor's missionary efforts in 110.
The unhealthiness of the climate of, experienced by Europeans engaged in a mission in, 182.
Agents for "The Friend." List of, 38. 55. 62. 71. 143. 279. 416.
Agriculture. Observations on deep and shallow sowing of wheat, 69. in California. Notice of, 316. 324.
On the beneficial effects of tillage in drought, 407.
Alarm sounded in time of danger, 346.
Alaska. Notice of explorations in, in 1883, by F. Schwatka, 355. 363.
Notice of a recent expedition to, under Lieut. Schwatka, 407.
Aluminum. On a new process for obtaining, 109. 270.
Amusement when it becomes the business of life, utterly wearisome, 134.
Aqueducts. Notice of three Roman, near Lyons, 46.
"Are you a stranger." Incident entitled, 349.
Arctic animals subsist. The means by which, 109.
climate. On characteristics of the, 182.
explorations. Notice of, proposed by Germany, 37.
cold. On the endurance of, by human beings, 37.
regions. On the Eskimo caches in the, 206.
Arsenic eating. On the effects of, 78.
Assyrians. Notice of the carying of prisoners into captivity by the, 285.
Assyrian inscriptions. Account of slabs containing, sent to Philadelphia, 3.
Illustrations of the historical accuracy of the Scriptures from, 12. 285.
Autumn walk. An, 122.

Babel. A recent visit to the tower of, 155.
Balata. Account of the use of, as gutta percha, 54.
"Balm from Gilead." Religious counsel and exhortation entitled, 206.
Bank notes. On the paper and printing of, 86.
Baptism. The doctrine of Friends respecting, 325. 330.
An advocate of water, answered, 405.
Baptists. A woman ordained as a pastor by, 14.
Barbecue method of cooking described, 394.
Barclay's Apology. Testimony of a military officer concerning, 149.
Notice of a new edition of, published in Scotland, 214. 246. 255.
Barclay John. Remarks of, on obedience to apprehended duty in little and in all things, 260.
Remarks of, on the weighty exercises attending the business of a Yearly Meeting, and comments, 275.
Battey Hannah H. Biographical sketch of, 243.
Beacon marks. Remarks on preparing obituary notices, entitled, 307.
Bee. Filial fidelity in the, 318.
Benezet Anthony. Biographical notice of, with special reference to his early tract against ardent spirits, 92.
Letter of, to Mary Robinson of Newport, R. I., 218.
Bermudas. Notice of the great numbers of rats in the, about 1616, 134.
Bible Association of Friends. Circular of, 93. 100.
Society. Notice of the proceedings of the American, 367.
Billy Bray. Anecdote of, 413.
Biographical Notes and Anecdotes of Valentine Meader, 2.
Bird. A canary, dying of remorse, 94.
Birds. On the business in the feathers and skins of, 158.
as ornaments. On the impropriety of the fashion of wearing, 246.
Notice of our winter songsters, 194. 213. 219.
Birds. Notice of the Audubon Society for the preservation of, 302.
Notice of the death of large numbers of, by electric lights in Chicago, 375.
Protest against trapping, for "Easter" observances, 383.
Birds' nests. Notice of edible, 230.
Birdsall Richard. Anecdote of, 171.
Book notices, &c. Sixteenth Annual Report of the "Associated Executive Committee of Friends on Indian affairs," 46.
"Light and Life," published by R. Barclay Murdoch, Glasgow, 46.
Military Manners and Customs, by J. A. Farrer, 58.
Acts relating to marriage in force in Penna., 87.
The Journal of Speculative Philosophy, 95.
Poems by Mary M. Miller, 95. 135.
The Antidote, 119.
Letters from a mother to a mother on childrens' teeth, 119.
Pocket almanac for 1886, 175.
The Tract Repository, 190.
Early Friends and outward ordinances, by Thomas Kimber, 191.
A Brief Exposition and Vindication of some of the most important of the original Doctrines, Principles, and Practices of the Religious Society of Friends. By Charles Perry, 191.
A new edition of Barclay's Apology, published in Scotland, 214. 246. 255.
Religious Tests in Provincial Pennsylvania, by C. J. Stillé, 215.
Selections from the writings of William Penn, 215.
The Position of London and Dublin Yearly meetings, by Geo. A. Milne, (3rd edition), 215.
Vicks' Floral Guide, for 1886, 215.
Two years in the jungle, 234.
The Confession of Non-belief, &c., by Charles Elcock, 239.
Report of the Penna. Society for prevention of cruelty to animals, 254.
The Baptism and the Supper of our Lord, 263.
Early Physicians of Philadelphia and its vicinity, by Dr. J. J. Levick, 271.
Memoir of Mary Anna Longstreth, 279.
A History of Education in Pennsylvania, by James P. Wickersham, 303.
Annual Report of Friends' Free Library at Germantown, 319.
Treatise on oaths, 319.
Sixty-ninth Annual Report of the Frankford Asylum, 351.
"The Old Testament Student," 368.
"Printed Poison," by J. W. Leeds, in French, 375.
Books. Remarks on misapplied time in reading, 69.
Description of the, of the ancients, 188.
Boston. Notice of the imprisonment of H. L. Hastings in, for preaching, 343.
Botanical excursion to an upland swamp, 332.
Botanizing among the Pine-barrens and Cranberry bogs, 66.
Botanist. A shoemaker in Vermont becomes a learned, by improving leisure hours, 398.
Boy. Anecdote of a truthful, 283.
The best recommendation of a, 309.
Boys and girls in their teens. A talk with, 291.
Boys. Incident showing the kindness of the Earl of Shaftesbury for poor, 237.
Bowly Daniel Jr. Advices of, on a preparation for death, 268.
Brahmin lady. Notice of Pundita Ramabai a distinguished, 262.
Brantingham Mary. Incident connected with the ministry of, 43.
Brave little girl. A, 99.
Bromine as a disinfectant and insecticide, 54.
Brown Moses of Providence, R. I., liberates his slaves under a feeling of religious duty, 163.
Burials. On the impropriety of flowers as adornments at, 253.
Business. Notice of honesty in, 255.
Business habits. Illustration of the importance of forming good, 404.

California. Notice of the export of fruit from, to China and Australia, 37.
Notice of the production of raisins in, 134.
Observations on the climate, &c., of Santa Barbara, 203.
Notice of certain trees and shrubs of Southern, 222.
Reminiscences of postal arrangements in San Francisco 20 years ago, 397.
Notice of large farming operations in, 316. 324.
Card playing very dangerous to good morals, 29.
Camel. Experience of a woman in mounting and dismounting from a, 285.
Candle of the Lord. What is it? Essay entitled, The 364.
Capital punishment in Switzerland. Notice of recent action respecting, 143.
Capper Mary. Remarks of, on her exercise on behalf of the Society of Friends, 123.
Captive birds. Extract entitled, The, 260.
Carbonic acid gas. Notice of the manufacture of liquified, as a business, 262.
Cathedral at Rome. Account of the hooping of the great, 21.
Celluloid. On the composition and uses of, 126.
Charity balls. Remarks on ungodly character of, 255.
Charitable purposes. On seeking the Divine approval in giving towards, 390.
Chalkley Thomas. Testimony to the Christian character of, by Daniel Stanton, 127.
Children. Remarks on the visitations of Divine grace to, 27.
Advice of John Hallowell on his death-bed to his, 27.
On the responsibility of mothers in spoiling, 29. 146. of Friends. On the importance of the guarded religious education of, 127.
Two brave, 132.
Address to parents on the training and proper restraint of, 139.
On the importance of a steady, circumspect example of parents in the training of, 146.
On the necessity of a proper restraint of, 146.
On the importance of the supervision of, after dark in cities, by parents, 162.
should be taught to avoid sin because it is displeasing to God, 163.
Why parents so often fail in the management of, 165.
Be careful to keep a promise to, 317.
On the duty of, to acknowledge their obligation to the mother, 357.
On the practical benevolence of giving to city, the enjoyments of country air, &c., 407.
Childrens' Aid Society of New York. Notice of the work of, 182.
China. Notice of remonstrance of missionaries against the opium traffic in, 54.
Account of the work performed by W. Gamble in, 365.
Chinese. Observations of George Pitt on the, in Hong Kong and San Francisco, 100.
Account of the recent massacre of, in Wyoming, and comments, 108.
The identification of individuals among, by thumb markings proposed, 110.
Notice of Presbyterians among the, 198.
Observations on the hostility against the, by other foreigners on the Pacific slope, 203. 286. hospital patients in China. Notice of the gratitude of, 204.
Remarks on the unreasoning violence lately manifested against the, in this country, 247. 325.
Life of the, on Chinese rivers, 251.
Notice of outspoken sentiments on the Pacific coast in favor of the, 286.
The principles of the gospel should rule the action of this country towards the, 310.

XUM

Chinese books, &c. Notice of W. Gamble's labors in preparing type, &c., for, 365. 410. 415.
Resolutions of the Presbyterian General Assembly reprobating recent violence against the, on the Pacific coast, 407.
Christ by his light appears to every man. Comments on the fundamental doctrine that, 6. 86. 103. 109. 111. 127. 348. 356. 410. 415.
On the true ground of hope in, 49.
Dying testimony of William Williams to the gospel of, 61.
On the self-denial involved in becoming like, 77.
came not to save men in, but from their sins, 97.
On the work of, in the world, before His visible appearance in the flesh, 106.
The faith in the history of, outwardly, without obeying his Light, a poisonous doctrine, 109.
the quickening spirit, 123.
is the author and finisher of our faith, and the mediator, 156.
On the belief of Friends in regard to the spiritual body and blood of, 223.
The headship of, in his church set at naught by a hired ministry, 230.
On ministering to, in the relief of suffering, 285.
The inward voice of, to be waited for and obeyed, 293.
Testimony to the divinity of, 363.
O! that people would receive, into their hearts, 374.
Christians are to avoid all "questionable" amusements, 26.
The cause of religion involved in the example of, before the world, 302.
The early, disapproved of images, 389.
Christian mothers should make a stand in regard to certain kinds of dress, 207.
Christmas. Reasons given by The American, of Washington, against the observance of, 173.
Christianity is not a historical belief only but obedience to the Light, 109.
Christianized. On becoming thoroughly, 141.
Church. On the hope of a revival in the, 11.
Gifts of money often work injury to the, 412.
Church and state. Notice of wars, &c., arising from a union of, 214.
Christy James of Ireland. Anecdote relating to, 149.
Churchman John. Anecdotes of, 348.
Choosing yet not choosing. Extract entitled, 141.
Circus-shows. Reasons assigned by "The Christian Advocate" for the non-attendance of, 14.
Clarkson Thomas. On the early efforts of, against slavery, 92.
Cider. On the percentage of alcohol in, 222.
Clock. A curious, 399.
Cloths. Notice of an extensive collection of ancient woollen and cotton, 271.
Coal mines. Improved method of blasting in, to prevent explosions, 358.
Coan Titus. Extracts from a memorial volume of, prepared by his widow, 236.
Cocoa-nut fibre. On the use of, as a protection to masonry, 46.
Cocoaine. On the properties and uses of, &c., 358.
Coggeshall Elizabeth. Incidents connected with the ministry of, 67.
College morals. Reports in reference to, 231.
hazing discouraged at Princeton, N. J., 238.
Collins Comfort. Remarkable testimony to the gospel borne by, in advanced age, 61.
Collins Micajah. Memoirs of (continued from vol. lviii. p. 410) 1. 9. 17. 25. 33. 41.
An account of the triumphant close of, 42.
Poetical tribute of respect to, written by a clergyman, 60.
Color blindness. Instance of, 13.
Colored people. Legal decisions on the rights of, in New Jersey, 271.
Common sense. On the value of, 74.
Communion. On the true doctrine respecting the, 66.
Consumption. On the hygienic treatment of pulmonary, 118.
Contentment. On a spurious, 68.
Conversation. On guarding well the tongue in, 141.
On the importance of being entirely sincere in our, 404.
Coolies. Observations on the gentle and Christian-like character of East Indian, 53. 68.
Cooper Richard, a colored Friend. Obituary notice of, 358.
Cope Samuel. Remarks on the character of the late, 45.
David. Anecdote of the late, 67. 148.
Coral islands of the Pacific. Observations on the, 26.
Corea. Notice of large lava-beds in, 118.
Cotton crop. Notice of the injury to the, in N. Carolina by a minute insect, 402.
Crab. On the use of powdered, as medicine in Russia, 54.
Crime. Testimony on the effect of evil associations in producing, 54.
On three-fold causes of, 86.
Statistics of the causes of, in New York city, 206.
Criminal. Remarks on signing a petition for the pardon of a, 69.
Account of the Elmira Reformatory for the help of, 74.
Cuttle fish bone. On the collection and use of, 206.

Dahl Endre. Biographical notice of, 108.
Davis Mary, of Dartmouth, Mass. Incidents connected with the ministry of, 171.
Death. On the causes of sudden, 198.
Deaths.—Samuel Abbott, 96; Nathan Aaronson, 96; Martha K. Bell, 23. 24. 131; Vincent Bowerman, 40; Franklin Henry Bell, 88; Ann E. Brown, 104; William Bettle, 296; William H. Balderston, 368; Ruth W. Bundy, 384; Joel Cook, 24; Phœbe Cronkite, 40; James M. Corse, M. D., 96; Benjamin J. Crew, 144; Mifflin Cadwallader, 208; Aquilla Crew, 224; Druzilla Crew, 224; Sinah Cunard, 296; Robert J. Cope, 384; Mercy Ann Cresson, 400; Evan Cooper, 416; Job Durnell, 8; Cornelius Douglass, 24; Harvey Derbyshire, 296; Maria Leavens Ellsworth, 40; Thomas D. Edgerton, 96; Joshua Embree, 112; Esther H. Eldridge, 112; James Evans, 120. 128; William H. England, 136; Meribah Evans, 232; Abner Eldridge, 408; James Edgar Edgerton, 336; Judith A. Futrell, 144; Jeremiah Foster, 176; Mary Fox, 208; William Garratt, 256; Anna S. Gruwell, 280; Ann E Gilbert, 328; Hannah Ann Griffith, 368; Thomas C. Hopkins, 8; George Hughes, 8; Eli Hodgin, 24; Sarah Haines, 40; Jane Hancock, 72; Ann B. Hayes, 128; Jesse Hiatt, 128; Hannah Hutchinson, 192; Jane Hampton, 208; Elizabeth D. Hutchinson, 248; Anna W. Hastings, 288; Thomas M. Harvey, 312; Deborah S. Hall, 416; Sarah S. Jones, 8; Robert Barclay Jones, 328; Grace T. King, 24; Rebecca W. Kay, 128; Rebecca Kaighn, 192; Mary Kaighn, 192; Eli Kennard, 264; Wilmer P. Leeds, 32; David W. Lupton, 56; Mehetabel J. Morris, 56; Mary Anna Macomber, 160; Abigail Masters, 184; Mark Whitall Miles, 192; Eliza A. E. Miles, 192; Ruth Maulsby, 216; Ann Marshall, 224; Elizabeth Macy, 312; Asenath H. Mendenhall, 328; Martha V. Mendenhall, 328; Isaac Moore, 368; Moses Mendenhall, 400; William E. Newlin, 240; George Newhall, 256; Amasa L. Negus, 264; Elton O. Newson, 376; Asenath Peebles, 112; Ruth Parry, 152; Rebecca R. Pusey, 184; Daniel Peckham, 208; Margaret Parker, 376; Henry Pyle, 416; Rachel E. Roberts, 88; Samuel H. Roberts, 104; Elihu Roberts, 176; George D. Reid, 312; Samuel B. Smith, 8; Julia Simkin, 48; Mary Stapler, 56; Lemuel Smith, 64; Mary E. Spencer, 104; Susan B. Satterthwaite, 120; Gideon G. Smith, 128; Lydia Shipley, 160; John Sharpless, 176; Mary K. Stanley, 272; Samuel Sheffield, 304; Priscilla C. Sheppard, 344; William Tatnall, 200; Elizabeth H. Thompson, 312; Elizabeth S. Thomas, 368; Elizabeth Thompson, 368; Lettice Thompson, 368; Lucy Wanzer, 80; Joel Wilson, 104; Clayton Webb, 152; Sarah Webb, 152; Sarah L. Webster, 184; Louisa Willets, 200; Hannah F. Wood, 200; Mary H. Whitall, 272; Rebecca Wistar, 288; Phœbe P. Whitson, 360; Lydia Yearsley, 336.
Debt made visible, 278.
Deceivableness of unrighteousness. On the, 173.
Decoration day. Remarks on the incompatibility of war with Christianity entitled, Thoughts for, 383.
Denmark. Notice of the discovery of small golden boats of ancient manufacture in, 94.
Desert. On the, without water, 341.
Dewees Rebecca. Letters of, 180. 181.
Diamonds. On the difference in the hardness of, 6.
Difficulties. The overcoming of, a means of greater strength, 157.
Dismal swamp of Virginia. Account of a recent visit to the, 11.
Divorce laws of Penna. Notice of an effort to secure more stringent, 263.
Divorces. An amendment to the Constitution advocated to prevent, 415.
Dogs in Wyoming Territory. Notice of wild, 286.
Dream of Jeremiah Foster. A, 187.
A remarkable, of a little boy, 249.
Dreams. Instruction conveyed in, 20.
Dress. The testimony of plainness and simplicity in, maintained by Mennonites, 151.
Dress. Christian mothers should make a stand in reference to, 207.
Comments on temptations to which young girls are exposed in the love of, 228.
Advice of Daniel Bowly to the young, to keep to plainness of, 268.
A plea for simplicity and plainness in, 307.
Experience of a Methodist woman in assuming a plainer, 308.
Advice of London Yearly Meeting, in 1747, in regard to plainness of, 309.
Remorse of a dying girl in reference to, 310.
Drought. Notice of the effects of, in Java, 134.
Dusts. On the character and origin of the, observed on certain oceans, 174.
On the dangers to health, from metallic, 182.
Duty. On the value of an exact performance of, 114.
On being faithful to small intimations of, 126.
On not being ashamed in the performance of, 205.
The calls of, often require courage to perform them, 357.
Our highest, to do that which God gives us to do, 397.

Ear-rings. The wearing of, a vestige of barbarism, 133.
Earth. Recent observations on the temperature of the, at great depths, 61.
Notice of the inappreciable effect of meteors in retarding the motion of the, 230.
Economist. A successful, 302.
Edgerton Joseph. Remarks of, on the necessity of maintaining Yearly Meeting schools, under religious concern, 116.
Education. What is? 293.
Editorial.—Comments on the silence of the General Epistle of London Yearly Meeting of 1885 on the fundamental doctrine of the Light of Christ, 6; Remarks in reference to the "Summary of Events," 7; Agent appointed, 7. 111; Remarks on the blessedness of experiencing the tendering visitations of Divine grace, 14; On extending the circulation of "The Friend," 15; Remarks on the working of prohibitory liquor laws in Iowa, 15; Remarks on the death and character of the late Ulysses S. Grant, and the extravagance displayed in outward tokens of mourning, 22; Remarks on the only place of safety for the Christian, 23; Remarks on the decease of Martha K. Bell, 23; Correction in reference to the death of Valentine Meader, 23; Comments on the cause of spiritual coldness and death in a meeting, 31; Remarks on a typographical error, 31; Notice of the recent visit of a Friend to a remote settlement of Friends in O'Brien County, Iowa, 38; Remarks on the laying down of San José Monthly Meeting, Cal., by Honey Creek Quarterly Meeting, and the unsoundness of members of the latter meeting, 39; Comments on letters recently received respecting the "Missionary Movements" among Friends, 47; On the impartial enforcement of the discipline among Friends in regard to musical instruments, &c., 55; Remarks on the aspersion of the character of Friends by "The Christian Worker," 63; Notice of Ohio Yearly Meeting Boarding School, 63; Comments on the recent action of the Binns' body in Ohio, in refusing to reaffirm the doctrines of Friends on the subjects of Baptism and Communion, 71; Account of the proceedings of Ohio Yearly Meeting, 79; Correction of a date, 80; Comments on the necessity of an open exposure of errors among Friends, under the constrainings of gospel love, 87; Notice of an appeal from Honey Creek Quarterly Meeting to Iowa Yearly Meeting (larger body), 87; Notice of pamphlet containing Acts relating to Marriage, in force in Penna., 87; Comments on some of the proceedings of the Western (larger body) and Iowa (larger body) Yearly Meetings, 95; Notice of "The Journal of Speculative Philosophy," 95; Notice of Poems by Mary M. Miller, 95; Comments on the proper conducting of meetings for discipline, 95; Comments on the doctrine of the universality of Divine grace, and its effects, 103; Correction of typographical errors, 103; Comments on an attack on the doctrine of the Light of Christ, 111; Notice of remarks in a Methodist paper on hasty utterances in meetings for worship, 111; Notice of "Letters of a mother to a mother on childrens' teeth," 119; Notice of letters received by the Editor, 119; On the visitations of Divine grace, and the danger there is of losing a good condition, 127; Comments on the need at the present day of the advice given to Friends by Stephen Crisp to beware of seducing spirits, 135; Remarks on the murder of John Sharpless, 135; Remarks on bringing to public notice religious exercises and labors for the good of others, 143; Remarks on a communication from Joel Bean respecting the charges against San José Monthly Meeting, 143; Remarks on improving opportunities in every day life for promoting the Truth, 151; Remarks on recent testimonies borne by several Yearly Meetings against water-baptism, &c., 159; Reflections on the violent death of John Sharpless, 167; Notice of a letter on the departure from Friends' principles involved in the "missionary movement," and remarks on becoming preachers of righteousness by individual faithfulness, 175; Notice of a Pocket Almanac for 1886, 175; On a proposal to allot the Indian Reservations, and on the treatment of the Indians by the Government, 183; On the concern of Friends in regard to the use of spirituous and intoxicating drinks among them, 190; Notice of "Early Friends and Outward Ordinances," by Thomas Kimber, 191; Notice of "A Brief Exposition," &c., of the doctrines of Friends, by Charles Perry, 191; Notice of the minute of the Meeting for Sufferings advising against the Womens' Foreign Missionary Association, and comments on the principles involved, 198. 207. 335; Notice of a circular of the Penna. Hospital respecting a dispensary for mental disorders, 199; Comments on an extract from the Life of Thomas à Kempis, on taking credit for good works, 207; Notice of "Religious Tests in Provincial Pennsylvania," by C. J. Stillé, and the efforts of William Penn to abolish them, 215; Notice of appeal on behalf of "the Female Society of Philada. for the relief and employment of the poor," 215; Notice of printed Selections from the writings of William Penn, 215; Notice of "The position of London and Dublin Yearly Meetings," &c., by Geo. A. Milne (3rd edition), 215; Notice of Vicks' Floral Guide for 1886, 215; On the doctrine of Friends respecting the spiritual body and blood of Christ, 223; Notice of a proposed Local Option law in New Jersey, 223; On the views of the Society of Friends respecting the Sabbath, 231; Notice of "The Confession of Non-belief, issued by the Binns' Select Yearly Meeting of Ohio, examined" by Charles Elcock, 239; Notice of a communication respecting Missionary Associations, 239; Remarks on and extracts from communications respecting temperance, 246; Remarks on recent public outrages against the Chinese in this country, 247; Remarks on the practical nature of true religion, 255; Notice of a Scotch edition of Barclay's Apology, 255; Notice of a circular proposing to raise money to pay for preaching, and comments on the stumbling effects upon serious inquirers of such action by so-called "Friends," 263; Notice of "The Baptism and the Supper of our Lord," 263; Notice of a communication respecting the introduction of two Local Option bills in the Legislature of Ohio, 263; Remarks on a communication respecting obituary notices, 271; Notice of "Early Physicians of Philadelphia and its vicinity," by Dr. J. J. Levick, 271; Remarks on the results of the recent conference in London respecting correspondence with other Yearly Meetings, 279; Notice of a "Memoir of Mary Anna Longstreth," 279; Notice of practices introduced into so-called "revival" meetings in some places, 287; Remarks on certain sound doctrinal views in lectures delivered by Joseph Cook in Boston, 295; Notice of the proposed holding of a Sanitary Convention in Philada., 295; Account of the proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 303; Notice of "A History of Education in Pennsylvania," by Jas. P. Wickersham, 303. 310; Remarks on the interest manifested by younger Friends in the proceedings of the late Yearly Meeting, 319; On the attendance of the Yearly Meeting by Friends from a distance, 319; Observations on the encouragement to Friends in their smaller meetings from the visits of concerned members, 320; Remarks on rebuilding the dwelling-house, &c., at Tunesassa, 320; Comments on the reversal of Judge Proudfoot's decision in reference to Friends' property in Canada, 327; Remarks on recent strikes among workmen and on the Knights of Labor, 343; True religion a practical work, 351; Notice of recently published tracts, and remarks on the service which may attend the distribution of religious publications, 359; Remarks on a protest lately made against erecting statues of military men in Philada, 359; On tampering with temptation, 367; Notice of "The Old Testament Student," 368; Notice of the proceedings of Dublin and London Yearly Meetings, 375; Comments on the publication of "Thoughts for Decoration day," 383; Comments on a criticism of the Essay "On the right authority and qualification for religious labor," 391; Notice of instructive paragraphs in a letter from a friend, 391; Notice of proceedings of New York Yearly Meeting, 392; Notice of the proceedings of Canada Yearly Meeting, 399; Notice to subscribers in arrears, 399; Remarks on practical difficulties in securing temperance reform in New Jersey, 407; Remarks on the death of Robert Smeal, Editor of The British Friend, 408; Notice of an appeal by the University of Pa. for gifts of pamphlets, &c., 408; Reply to false charges made by The Christian Worker respecting the holding of Unitarian doctrines by Friends of Philadelphia and "The Friend," 415.

Elders. On the appointment of, by Spiritual Christians in Russia, 390.

Electric lamps. Notice of the production and price of carbon points for the, 189.

Electrical furnaces. On a new process for obtaining aluminum, &c., by, 109. 270.

Electricity. On the dangers of, 5.
- Masses of metals in houses a possible source of danger from lightning, 70.
- Suggestions in regard to the liability of certain trees to be struck by lightning, 126.
- A serious injury to a workman from, 190.

Elliott Nathan. Anecdotes of, 355.

Elmira Reformatory. Account of the, and its beneficial effects, 74.

Encouragement. On the duty of extending proper, 133.

Engineering. Notice of extreme accuracy in modern, 309.

England. On the proposed separation of church and state in, 102. 127.
- Observations in, during a ten weeks trip, 121. 129. 137. 145. 153.

Epistle to Titus recommended to be read by young men. The, 277.
- of London Yearly Meeting, in 1790, 291.

Episcopal Church. Disestablishment in England advocated by members of the, 127.
- Discussion of peace principles, believed for the first time, in the annual Congress of, 135.
- Notice of recent "mission" meetings by, in New York city, 167.
- On the scandal to religion, by the sale of church livings in the, 198.
- The disestablishment of the, favored by many members of Parliament, 239.

Eskimo. On the resemblance of the, to Chinese, 182.

Essay on the right authority and qualification for religious labor. Comments on a criticism of, 391.

Established church of Scotland. Proposal to make the seats in places of worship of, free to all, 407.

Eye and the mind. Observations on the connection between, 414.

Europe. A view of the religious condition of, 6.
- The condition of, now described as one of arming and starving, 327.

Evans Elizabeth. Incident connected with the ministry of the late, 149.

Eyes. Remarks on mummy, 134.

Explosion of malt meal. Notice of, 198.

Explosive. Caustic lime used as a substitute for, 343.

Faith. A true, controls the conduct, 133.
- On the, that worketh by love, 156.

Falseness in every day life, 310.

Farming in California, 316. 324.

Fault-finding often a measure of the worthlessness of a man, 270.

Female Society of Philada. for the relief and employment of the poor. Appeal on behalf of the, 215.

Feudal and modern times. On the increased blessings of the present day, entitled, 21.

Fidelity to conviction. The fruits of, 143.

First day of the week. Notice of new law prohibiting trade labor in Vienna on the, 6.
- On the legal ground in the United States for the observance of, as a day of rest, 143.
- Protest against reading newspapers on the, 182.
- The, not the Sabbath, 231.
- Notice of the closing of liquor saloons in Phila. on the, 343.

Fires. On the prevention of, by greater thoughtfulness, 270.
- On the value of carbonic acid gas as an extinguisher of, particularly on vessels, 271.
- Precautions to be observed in escaping from burning buildings, 294.
- On the danger of, from steam pipes, 302.

Fish. Notice of the sea-salmon caught in the Chesapeake bay, 61.
- On the flying of the flying, 238.
- Remarks on the cultivation of, 413.

Fishery. On the injury to the shad, in certain places, 174.

Food. Rose-pods used for, in Alaska, 358.

Food. Unwholesome bread made of pine branches in Norway, 414.

Forests of the upper Amazon. Notice of water-paths in the, 335.

Fossilized wood. Notice of a vast accumulation of, in Arizona, 366.

Fothergill Samuel. Extracts from, on the blessings of spiritual retirement, 4.

Fox George. On the source where the religious views of, were derived, 284.
- Maria, of Tottenham. Brief notice of the life and religious labors of, 339.
- On rightly understanding the Scriptures, 412.

France. Notice of the recent course of the Government of, towards the Pope, 182.

Franklin Matthew. Account by, of the spiritual life of Comfort Collins in very advanced age, 61.

Freedmen. Appeal on behalf of the, 148.
- Notice of Martha Schofield's labors among the, at Aiken, S. C., 367.
- Notice of the proceedings of Friends' Association for the relief of, 367.

Free state of Congo. Account of the establishment of the, 73. 81. 89. 97. 103. 105.

Friends. Religious communications addressed to, 4. 11. 12. 13. 35. 36. 49. 58. 63. 66. 75. 90. 99. 114. 122. 123. 155. 173. 206. 213. 227. 242. 250. 277. 285. 301. 332. 346. 357. 364.
- On the state of the Society of, 30. 49. 87. 90. 159. 197. 213. 227. 228. 246. 250. 287. 346. 415.
- Extract from Sarah [L.] Grubb, on the alarming state of the Society of, in England, in 1832, &c., 179. 189.
- On the great responsibility resting on the Society of, 4. 13.
- Encouragement to, 51.
- Comments on the silence of the London General Epistle of 1885, on the fundamental doctrine of obedience to the light of Christ, 2. 6.
- Selections and reflections respecting the principles and practices of, 4.
- The doctrine of the light of Christ manifested to every individual, fundamental to the Society of, 6. 86. 103. 111. 135. 151. 157. 162. 206. 291. 356. 410.
- On the fearful error of undertaking to deliver the Society of, from its present low condition by human wisdom, 12.
- An exhortation to, by Christian Omundson, and comments, 13.
- Observations on the late spread of the principles of, in Scotland, 30. 246.
- On the causes of alarm to, respecting the Home Mission movement, 37.
- Minute of North Carolina Yearly Meeting against the use of "ordinances" by, 38.
- Minute of Baltimore Yearly Meeting against the use of "ordinances" by, 143.
- Comments on the above, 159. 196.
- Notice of a new settlement of, in O'Brien Co., Iowa, 38.
- Notice of the opening of a new meeting-house by, at Paullina, Iowa, 415.
- Hints to, relative to moderation, simplicity, and contentment with little things, 44.
- Testimony of John Smith of Marlborough, respecting, in the early settlement of Penna., 44.
- Caln Quarterly Meeting of, Penna. Account of a visit to, 45.
- On the character and results of the "missionary movement" among, 47. 70. 143. 159. 175. 198. 207. 335. 391.
- On the impartial enforcement of the discipline among, in reference to musical instruments, &c., 55.
- On the doctrines of, respecting the communion, 66.
- On the danger to, of mixing in benevolent associations, &c., with others, 67.
- Result of faithfulness in a person convinced of the principles of, 83.
- On the doctrine of, respecting Christ's coming both in flesh and spirit, 84.
- On the necessity of the open exposure of error among, in gospel love, 87.
- On the doctrine of, in regard to ministry, 95. 205.
- On the doctrine of, in regard to worship, 95. 148. 159. 301.
- On the doctrine of, in regard to the Scriptures, 95. 138.
- On the proper conducting of meetings for discipline of, 95.
- The belief of, in the necessity of waiting upon God for the qualification to offer acceptable prayer, 98.

XUM

Friends. On the advantage to, when isolated, of meeting for Divine worship at home, 99.
A salutation of love to the aged members of the Society of, 99.
Prediction of Joseph Hoag, delivered about 50 years ago, respecting, 100.
Prediction of Abigail Miller respecting the Society of, 228.
An address to, 106.
On the importance of maintaining schools for, under religious concern, 116.
On the danger to, of an inordinate pursuit of learning, 123.
On the importance of the guarded, religious education of the children of, 127.
Western Quarterly Meeting of, Penna. Account of a visit to, 138.
An address to, by Ruth Hustin (not a member), 139.
The reading of the Scriptures in meetings for worship of, a disorganizing innovation, 142.
Notice of religious exercises in the Meeting for Sufferings of, in Philada. in 1869, respecting the Society of, 163.
Remarks on the necessity of administering the discipline of, in the right spirit, 171.
Notice of proceedings of Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting of, 12th mo. 1885, 175.
Notice of a time of Divine favor at Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting, held 6th mo. 1886, 413.
On the concern of, in reference to the use of spirituous liquors, &c., 190.
wherever situated. Address of Adam Spencer to, 195.
On the belief of, in regard to the atonement, 195.
A glance at the, from Dublin, Ind., by David Huddleston, 197.
Caution to, in reference to joining in the excitements of "temperance work," &c., 211.
Remarks on the above, 246.
On the doctrine of, in regard to justification by faith, 221. 395.
On the doctrine of, respecting the spiritual body and blood of Christ, 223.
Testimony of Stephen Grellett to the Christian doctrines and testimonies of, 229.
On the doctrine of, respecting the first day of the week, 231.
On the recent conference held in London, respecting official correspondence among, 246.
Remarks of Daniel Bowly on the duty of, to maintain plainness of dress and address, 268.
Remarks on the causes of the decline of, in numbers, in certain places, 282.
On the testimony of, to plainness of dress, 308. 309.
Address to the young men, of Philada. Yearly Meeting, 324.
On the doctrine of, respecting baptism, 325. 330.
Human oratory, &c., have no place in the meetings of, 332. 391.
Remarks on causes producing separation in the Society of, in late years, 347.
On the practical character of the teachings of the early, 351.
The strength of the Society of, is not in the numbers but the faithfulness of its members, 355.
Expostulation with some of the younger members among, upon lightly using solemn words, 357.
Caution expressed by John Churchman respecting the neglect of week day meetings by, 365.
Account of the first settlement of, near Newton, N. J., 371.
The religion of, instituted by Christ himself, 405.
Encouraging belief of the late Joseph Snowdon in regard to the Society of, 406.
Unsound doctrines among, the result of a disregard of the light of Christ, 410. in N. Eastern N. Carolina. Remarks on visiting, 410.
Remarks on recent misrepresentations of, 415.
Friends Institute. Annual report of, 206.
Friends Institute lectures. Notice of, 183.
Funerals. Sensible views with reference to, being the directions of Judge A. H. Dunlevy, 147.

Gas. Notice of the character of "water," 294.
Gate posts. Remarks on setting, 276.
Gamble William. Account of the labors of, in printing Chinese books, &c., 365.
Gather the fragments. Essays entitled, 67. 75. 83. 148. 154. 163. 171. 176. 180. 188. 202. 212. 282. 292. 300. 348. 354. 405. 412.
Geology. Remarks upon, in connection with boulders, 206.
Notice of fossil fishes under trap at the Palisades, near New York, 342.
Gentleman. Remarks on what a, is not, 343.
Gentleness. Try the force of, 412.
Germanium, a new metal. Notice of the discovery of, 358.
Germany. Demands of the Evangelical Church in, for greater freedom from governmental restraint, 407.
Girl. The love of a little, for William Williams, 257.
The trust of a little, the highest compliment to a nobleman, 326.
Glass. Notice of a process for toughening, 110.
Glass-blowing. Notice of a new process for, 294.
God our defence, 253.
Good man. Extract entitled, A, 292.
Gotthold. Remarks of, on the injury sometimes done by abundant wealth, 205.
Government under universal suffrage. On the conditions of safe, 286.
Grace. As men grow in Divine, there is less need of preaching, 77.
On the constant need of Divine, to keep from falling into temptation, 404.
Granite. Notice of the resisting power of, 294.
Grant. Ulysses S. Remarks on the character and death of, 22.
Great I, and little u. Notice of a sermon upon, 323.
Green Jacob. Account of the visit of, to Ohio Yearly Meeting in 1839, 50.
Green sand of New Jersey. Observations on the origin, &c., of the, 18.
Grubb Sarah. Part of a letter of, on religious experience, 5.
Sarah [L.] Remarks of, on the danger of an inordinate pursuit of learning, 123.
Extracts from, on the alarming condition of the Society of Friends in 1832, &c., 179. 189.
Guilt. Those who have experienced, and been redeemed therefrom, the fittest to preach a Saviour to men, 260.
Guyon Jeanne Marie. Sketch of the life aad religious character of 379. 387. 395. 402. 411.
Extract from the life of, 300.

Hall Abigail W. Selections from the diary of, 369. 377. 385. 393. 401. 409.
Testimony of Goshen Monthly Meeting, Pa., concerning, 369.
Hallowell John. Extract from a testimony concerning, 27.
Happy. Those only who live to God are, 365.
Harkness David. Brief biographical notice of, 267.
Hastings H. L. Notice of the imprisonment of, in Boston, for preaching, 343.
Hat honor. Remarks on improving opportunities to explain the testimony of Friends against, 151.
Haverford College. Notice of the report of, for 1885, 206.
Hazing discountenanced at Lafayette College, Penna., 271.
Head and heart religion. On, 90.
Healy Christopher. Incident connected with the ministry of, 67.
Account of a religious visit of, to Hannah Williams' school, 202.
Heathen. Remarks on the Christian-like character of certain so-called, 53.
Suggestions to those, who pride themselves on being more civilized than the, 133.
Health. On curing hay fever, 54.
On the effects of smoking tobacco, in producing heart disease, 61.
Notice of remarkable instances, explanatory of some so-called "faith cures," 70.
On the scurvy, 78.
Notice of disease produced by the thread-worm in Turkestan, 86.
On the treatment of sun-stroke, 86.
Peat smoke an antiseptic, 102.
On the hygienic treatment of consumption, 118.
Too much shade near dwelling houses, injurious to, 150.
On the danger to, from decaying wood, 166.
On the danger to, from the gases arising from defective heaters, 166.
On the causes and prevention of insanity, 174.
Notice of the unwholesomeness of city rain water, 174.
On the dangers to, from metallic dust in the lungs, 182.
Inoculation for yellow fever practised with success, 197.
Health. On the preparation of vaccine matter, 197.
On the causes of sudden death, 198.
On the value of small fruits to, 214.
On the injury to, from damp cellars, 238.
Statistics of the value of vaccination against small-pox, 254.
Illustration of the dangers of tight lacing to, 271.
On the injury to, from fungoid disease, 278.
On regaining nerve strength, 286.
Notice of curious surgical cases, 286.
Causes of premature decay of, to business men, 318.
On the danger of contagion in throat troubles, 326.
Notice of an hysterical affection observed in natives of Java, 342.
Disease communicated by mosquitoes, 358.
A method of stopping bleeding at the nose, 358.
Remarks on spring lassitude, 366.
On the successful treatment of diseases without the use of alcohol, 367.
On the dangers resulting from the increasing use of morphia and other narcotics, 375.
A perverted taste admires a bloodless complexion rather than one of, 390.
On preventing loss of, to factory operatives, 398.
often injured by excess during summer vacations, 413.
Pestilential atmospheres purified by the sea, 399.
Henry Patrick. Testimony of, to the excellence of a Christian character, 60.
Heroism and faith. Incident illustrating, 59.
Hicks Elias. Remarks of Micajah Collins on the doctrines preached by, 17.
Hillman Sarah. Anecdote related by, 148.
History. On the workings of Divine providence in, 166.
"Ho! every one that thirsteth." Extract entitled, 157.
Hoag Joseph. A vision of, respecting this country, 45.
Prediction of, respecting Friends, 100.
Incidents connnected with the ministry of, 163. 259. 323.
Hoag Joseph D. Biographical notice of, 315.
Account of the convincement of several members of the family of, 387.
Biographical notice of Jemima Knowles, a daughter of, 397.
Holiday. Effort in New York to make Seventh-day afternoon a half, 262.
Holy Scriptures. Illustrations of passages of the, from Oriental customs, &c., 10. 12. 85. 117. 125. 140. 157. 164. 172. 270. 285. 286. 317. 341. 357.
The truth of the, appeals to the affections of the mind, 77.
are not profitable unless men are turned to the light and power whereof they testify, 87. 340. 341.
On the doctrines of Friends in regard to the, 95.
The term, Word of God, not applicable to the, 138.
The reading of the, in the meetings for worship of Friends a disorganizing innovation, 142.
The, not to be rightly understood, without the Spirit of Truth, 181.
Legal decision in Iowa, affirming the reading of, in the public schools, 190.
Statistics of the circulation of the, 206.
Notice of a manuscript of part of the, prepared in 1366, 231.
Notice of the, considered canonical by the Abyssinian church, 238.
Remark on a desire to discuss, rather than obey the truths of, 302. 340.
A copy of the New Testament instrumental in the conversion of a robber, 374.
The Revised Version of the, not likely to be again revised, 399.
Notice of a newly discovered manuscript of the, 399.
cannot be rightly understood without the Spirit of God, 412.
Homes. On the moral influence of, 47.
Honesty. Extract entitled, The reward of, 307.
"How much shall I give?" Incident entitled, 390.
Hubbs Rebecca. Anecdote of the Christian character, of, 67.
Humility. On Christian, 5.
Humble toil preferable to scientific education with infidelity, 333.
Hustin Ruth. An address of, to parents, 139.

Holy Spirit. Remarkable instance of the operation of the, in an Italian peasant, 371.

I. Essay entitled, 299.
Icelanders in America. Notice of, 6.
Image worship and statue rearing. On, 389.
Images resorted to during eruptions of Etna and Vesuvius, 415.
Imagination. On restraining the, from wandering in forbidden fields, 165.
Immoral prints. Notice of movements for the suppression of, in France and England, 54.
India. Remarks on the unselfish and honest character of the natives of, 68.
On the causes of the mutiny in, in 1857, 68.
Notice of progress among the natives of, 127.
Notice of the great mortality in, by famine, in 1876 and 1877, 250.
Notice of Pundita Ramabai's efforts to educate the women of, 262.
Account of native Christian believers in, 284.
Human sacrifices still made in, 295.
Notice of efforts in, to counteract Christian teachings, 375.
Notice of a proposed association for supplying medical aid to the women of, 383.
Incidents and reflections, 20. 27. 43.
Indian. Simile of an, respecting the Saviour, 54.
Indians of the upper Amazon. Account of the, 22.
Notice of the 16th annual report of the "Associated Executive Committee of Friends" relating to, 46.
Care of Friends in the early settlement of Pennsylvania not to sell rum to the, 78.
The reservations of the, are not prisons, 55,
Illustration of the way in which treaties with the, have been made, 79.
Notice of an industrial school for the help of the Cherokee, in North Carolina, 167.
Encouraging account of, educated at Hampton, Va., 182.
On a proposal to allot the lands of the, and the treatment of the, by the United States, 183.
Notice of a "city of refuge" among the Cherokees, 205.
On the policy to be pursued by the United States towards the, 238. 310.
Notice of the late destruction by fire of school buildings for, at Tunesassa, 247. 263.
Remarks on rebuilding the school, &c., for, at Tunesassa, 320.
Reply to the charge of extravagance by the United States Government in providing for the, 310.
On the obligation of the United States to protect the reservations of the, 351.
Notice of schools for the East Cherokee, of North Carolina, 351.
Notice of sweating houses among the, 358.
Statements respecting the progress and condition of the, in the Indian Territory, 375.
Brief statement respecting the injustice practised upon the, by the United States, 383.
Appeal for the proper treatment of, by Government agents, from Presbyterians in Canada. 399.
Circular letter of chiefs of the Sioux, against disposing of their land, 414.
Plea of, for their lands in the Indian Territory, 414.
Indian Territory. The leasing of lands in the, to cattle men, illegal, 31.
Insanity. On the causes and prevention of, 174.
Insane. Notice of the Friends' Asylum for the, near Frankford, 351.
Institute for Colored Youth. Notice of the, 287.
Intemperance. On the effect of prohibitory liquor laws in Iowa, 15.
Remarks on the introduction of temperance school books in different States, 38.
On the dangers of, drawn from the example of two clergymen, 55.
The consumption of liquors a cause of hard times to the people of this country, 62.
Comparison of the price of the privilege of selling beer and of food at a late fair, 71.
Early efforts of Anthony Benezet and Dr. Rush against the use of ardent spirits, 92.
Cardinal Manning's argument for local option laws, 119.
Notice of proposed regulation of the drink traffic in Russia, 127.
Fidelity to conviction respecting, of the son of a brewer, 143.
Intemperance. Resolutions of "Temperance Association of Friends of Philadelphia" in favor of local option law, 151.
Notice of the efforts to secure a local option law in Atlanta, Ga., 167.
Observations on the effects of cider in causing, among Indians, 175.
Beneficial results in Millville, N. J., of prohibition, 182.
On the progress and results of "local option" in Canada, 190.
Address of the German Missionary Society to the people of Germany respecting the liquor trade, 198.
Statistics of crime, due to, 206.
Notice of proposed tactics of saloon keepers to prevent interference with their business, 214.
Comments on the results of prohibition in Georgia, 214.
Notice of a proposed local option law in New Jersey, 223.
Notice of the action of the Danish Medical Association in reference to, 231.
Remarks of Titus Coon upon, in the Sandwich Islands, 236.
Notice of the increase of total abstainers in the English House of Commons, 254.
The licensing of the sale of liquor perpetuates the corruption of the public conscience, 255.
Notice of proposed determined measures in France against strong alcoholic liquors, 263.
Notice of increase of drunkenness among the Basutos, 271.
Remarks on the late expenditure in Iceland for drink, 278.
Statistics of the cost of intoxicating drinks in Great Britain and Ireland, 279.
Effect of the suggestion of one man in preventing, 292.
Refusal of Schumacher, the oatmeal maker, to sell grain to distillers, 309.
Notice of a local option law in Mississippi, 310.
Notice of Roman Catholic decrees against intoxicating liquors, 319.
No reliance can be placed on the word of a drunkard, 327.
Notice of the closing of liquor saloons on the First-day of the week in Philadelphia, 343.
Why Governor Geary did not drink intoxicating beverages, 348.
Notice of a popular movement against, in the north of Europe, 351.
Prohibition of the liquor business adopted in Rhode Island, 351.
Notice of a proposed prohibitory amendment to the Constitution of the United States, 367.
Notice of the encouraging results of the treatment of disease without alcohol, 367.
Remarks on expressions of John B. Gough in relation to, and the danger of tampering with temptation, 367.
Incidents connected with a recent election in Richmond, Va., 378.
Notice of progress of the temperance movement in N. Carolina, 407.
Remarks on practical difficulties in securing temperance reform in New Jersey, 407.
Items, 6. 14. 22. 30. 38. 54. 62. 70. 78. 86. 94. 102. 110. 118. 127. 134. 142. 151. 158. 167. 175. 182. 190. 198. 206. 214. 222. 230. 238. 246. 254. 262. 271. 278. 286. 294. 302. 310. 318. 327. 335. 343. 351. 359. 367. 375. 383. 391. 399. 407. 414.
Individual faithfulness. On becoming preachers of righteousness by, 175.
Injustice. Notice of a case of, and comments, 378.
Inwardness of spirit before the Lord, a rebuke to a chaffy spirit, 101.
Italy. On the extensive demoralizing influence of lotteries in, 215.
On the large export of eggs from, 262.
Infidelity. The weakness of, 350.

Jackson Hannah. Letter of, to the Second-day morning's meeting in Philadelphia in 1794, 122.
Japan. Notice of the preaching of Christian doctrines by natives of, in, 190.
Japanese congregation in San Francisco. Notice of a, 111.
Jefferis Martha. Letter of, to a young Friend, 149.
Jews. Notice of Christians among the, of Southern Russia, 46.
On the details of the Talmudical law of the, 349.
Women admitted to membership in synagogues of, in New York, 375.
Jews. Account of the early settlement of the, in Rome, 380.
Jordan Richard. Testimony of a person not a Friend to the powerful ministry of, 35.
Abstract of a communication of, addressed to Friends, 75.
Anecdote of, illustrating the need of watchfulness, 149.
Anecdotes of, 349. 354.
Request of, in connection with his abhorrence of slavery, 354.
Justification not imputed to those who disobey the Light of Christ, 109.
On the necessity of repentance previous to, 115.
and sanctification distinguished but not divided, 133.
by faith. The doctrine of Friends in regard to, stated by R. Barclay, 221.

Keeling or Cocos Islands. Observations on the, 26, 34. 42. 50.
Keep out of the whirlwind. Essay entitled, 211.
Remarks on the above, 246.
Knights of labor. Remarks on the recent strikes in connection with the, 343.
Knowledge. No royal road to, 71.
Remarks of W. E. Gladstone on the futility of all human, 132.
Knowles David F. and Jemima. Biographical notice of, 397.
Knox Vicessimus. Extracts from "Christian Philosophy," by, and comments, 333. 340.

Labor troubles. Comments on the, 294.
On applying the golden rule in the settlement of, 294. 412.
Lampblack. Notice of the spontaneous combustion of, 54.
Landslides. Notice of remarkable, 350.
Language. On the importance of the maintenance by Friends of their testimony to plainness of, 300.
Remarks on falseness in every day, 310.
Leisure hours. What may be accomplished by improving, 398.
Let us seek to know the Lord more fully, 285.
Leper girls. Account of three, 28.
Leprosy in the Sandwich Islands. Notice of, 334.
Letter of Hannah Jackson to the Second-day morning's meeting in 1794, 122.
Martha Jefferis to a young Friend, 149.
Mary Passmore, giving an account of a visit to John Phillips, 154.
Rebecca Dewees, 180.
Hugh D. Vail, 203.
Benjamin Hoyle, 212.
Anthony Benezet, 218,
Joseph Snowdon. Extracts from, 406.
Liberty of conscience does not consist in imposing individual views against the judgment of the body, 38.
Library. Notice of the annual report of Friends' Free, 319.
Lick observatory. Notice of the favorable site of the, 78.
Life. Extract entitled, Some certainties in, 43.
On the disposition of mankind to seek for a resting place in this, 46.
On the powerful influence for good or evil, on others, of our daily, 397.
Many opportunities for the exercise of virtue prevented in domestic, 404.
Life story. Extract entitled, A, 156.
Light of Christ. On the fundamental doctrine of, as believed by Friends, 6, 111, 135, 162.
Testimony of William Penn to the, 86. 157. 206.
Justification not imputed to those who disobey the, 109.
necessary to our redemption, 155.
"Live it down." Remarks on clearing the character, entitled, 172.
Literature. The sale of impure, prohibited in New Hampshire, 94.
Notice of a league for the suppression of immoral, in Pittsburg, 255.
Proposed bill against obscene, in New Jersey, 278.
Murder following the perusal of dime novels, 383.
Little thing. Extract entitled, A, 229.
Living is dying, 316.
Lottery. Remarks on the demoralizing character of the Louisiana, 22.
Light. Incandescent platina used for a, 246.
Lime. Caustic, used as a substitute for explosives, 343.

Little Scotch Granite. Anecdote of a troublesome boy, entitled, 283.
Lodging place for wayfaring men. Notice of a, in the East, 270.
London. On the struggle for employment in, 53.
Love strengthened by sadness, 358.
Loving salutation. A, 35.

Macomber Elizabeth. Brief biographical notice of, 267.
Macomber Caleb. Anecdote of, 163.
Man. Prof. Huxley's statement of the proper weight of, 326.
Magnetism. Observations on the injurious effects of, on artificial incubation. 61.
Marshes. Notice of the draining of the Pinsk, 166.
Martyrdom of three young converts of the Nyanza Mission, 159.
Manuscripts. Notice of the discovery of valuable ancient, 294.
Masonry antagonistic to Quakerism, 6.
Massachusetts. Former church customs in, 295.
Marble. Notice of the discovery in Algeria, &c., of quarries of, formerly worked by the Romans, 222.
Marriage. Remarks of Judge Deady on the importance of publicity in forming, 271.
Marriages.—Ellis C. Willits to Mary E. Patterson, 88; William Biddle, Jr., to Caroline C. Scattergood, 88; Alfred C. Elkinton to Abby Walton, 96; John Whitall Nicholson to Eliza E. Stokes, 104; Joseph L. Bailey to Anna H. Warrington, 104; Calvin Newlin to Lenora P. Haworth, 112; Arthur B. Maxwell to Rachel I. Kersey, 120; Thomas Thomasson to Mary E. Hodgin, 152; John H. Ballinger to Mary T. Rogers, 192; Isaac Hall to Phebe T. Hatton, 208; Edwin K. Cooper to Ella S. Wills, 208; Samuel Mason to Katharine E. Stokes, 240; Alfred Embree to Emma M. Hammel, 240; John Pollard to Janet Henderson, 280; Gilbert McGrew to Eliza Hall, 320; Elwood Comfort to Semira L. Vail, 392.
Married couple. Letter of Benjamin Hoyle to a newly, 212.
Maternal influence, 310.
Maxims from a dark age. Good, 261.
Melrose Abbey. Brief account of, 380.
Mennonites. Notice of the emigration of, from Russia, to avoid conscription, 115.
Testimony of, to plainness and simplicity of dress, maintaained by, 151.
Caution of, against an injudicious praise of the ministry, 302.
Meader Martha. Biographical notice of, 315.
Meader Phoebe. Biographical notice of, 314.
Meader Valentine. Biographical notes and anecdotes concerning, 2.
Remarks in reference to the above, 23.
Meaning what you say. Extract entitled, 404.
Meeting-houses. Notice of the enlargement of, belonging to Friends. 47, 135.
Metals. Remarkable effects produced by impurities in, 302.
Several rare, found in clay at Hainstadt, Germany, 415.
Meteors. Notes on the expected appearance of, in the Eleventh Month, 1885, 110.
Meteorites. Notice of two, 6.
Notice of the firing of a vessel by, 415.
Methodists. Rule of German, respecting marriage of ministers on trial, 78.
Discipline of, respecting appointments of preachers, 86.
Remarks of a bishop of, on the dangers of a "fashionable church," 103.
Explanation of a rule of, against needless self-indulgence, 103.
Statistics of the cost of missions of, 143.
Mice. Notice of a plague of, 294.
Microscope. A remarkably small engraving for the, 286.
Mifflin Lloyd. Anecdote of the late, 18.
Military manners and customs of the present and previous ages. On the murderous, 58. 65. 76. 82.
Miller Abigail. Prediction of, respecting the Society of Friends, and comments, 228.
Milk. The flow of, from cows, increased by kind treatment, 197.
On a method of preserving, 318.
Mineral wool. On the production and use of, 61.
Minister. The faith of a, revived, 413.
Ministry. Remarks on the system of a hireling, 28. 230.
Incidents and reflections connected with, 43.
Observations of John Conran on the call to and the exercise of gospel, 53.
Ministry. Anecdote connected with the, of Elizabeth Coggeshall, 67.
On the, of Richard Jordan, 75.
On the doctrines of Friends in regard to, 95. 205.
On the character of the, of early Friends, 97.
On the, of the apostles, 118.
Advice of Thomas Scattergood to one engaged in the, 125.
Notice of incidents accompanying the, of Joseph Hoag, 163. 259. 323. of Hannah Rhoads. Incident connected with the, 163. 176.
of Mary Davis. Incident connected with the, 171.
The doctrine of Friends in regard to the, stated by William Penn, 205.
Incident in the, of Hannah A. Battey, 243.
Notice of the powerful, of an illiterate Friend, 300.
Caution against injudicious praise of the, 302.
Silence in meetings for worship, much to be preferred to on unsanctified, 347.
of the early Friends. On the character of the, 351.
No schools for a trained, in the apostles' days, 362.
On the powerful, of a sanctified life, 397.
A hireling, exposed and opposed, 412.
"Mission." On the use of the word, and its introduction among the Roman Catholics, 159.
Missionary movements. Remarks of a member of another society in reference to, 28. interfered with by the French, in the South Seas, 102.
Objections of Friends to, 103.
On the sources of financial contributions towards, 375.
Notice of the resignation of membership among Friends, of one who had joined in, 391.
Montefiore Moses. Remarks on religious sentiments in connection with the death of, 111. 151.
Money. The love of, leading to ruinous practices to mercantile salesmen, 198.
Montana. Statistics of temperature in, 277.
Morality. Remarks on a false, 52.
More Hannah. Selections from the life and correspondence of, 220. 226. 234. 244. 252. 259. 268. 273. 281. 289. 297. 305. 313. 321. 329. 337. 345. 353. 361.
Moravians. On the testimony of the, in former times against war, 36.
Comments on the above, 131.
Morning. Remarks of Daniel Webster on the beauties of the, 126.
Mosquitoes. On the dense swarms of, in Alaska, 363.
Moslems praying for rain in Syria. Account of, 51.
Mother. Touching acknowledgment of the obligation of a son to a, when too late, 357.
Mott Elizabeth. A testimony of Rhode Island Monthly Meeting concerning, 130.
Mountain. On the heighth of Clingman's Dome, 286.
Mountain adventure. A, 107.
Mourning apparel. Plea against the use of, 359.
Mushrooms. The poisonous character of certain, developed by age. 150.
Music. Remarks on the incongruity of church, with pure worship, 125. 301.
Notice of the protest of a congregation of Presbyterians against instrumental, in their places of worship, 343.
Mustard plaster that will not blister. A, 222.

Nantucket as seen by a stranger, 165.
Napoleon. The career of, made instrumental in the Divine hand for good, 166.
National wrong-doing. On the payment of, 166.
Natural gas. Observations on the use of, for heating purposes near Pittsburg, Pa., 98.
Natural History.—The wood-thrush as a songster, 1; Summer food of Esquimaux dogs, 5; Earth-worms, 5; Turtle eggs on the Amazon, 6; Anecdotes of dogs, 13; The Paradise fish and its nest; Gigantic flowers, 14; Incident connected with a wren's nest, 21; Defences of the lower animals, 29; The frigate bird, 34; The Tropic bird, 34; The white tern, 34; The chætodon, 34; Coral island crabs, 34; A wren's nest. 37; The cocoa-nut crab, 42; The Baltimore oriole, 46; The house wren, 61; The English sparrow, 61; Notice of a sudden appearance of great numbers of crabs, 70; The cat-bird, 75; Monkeys in India, 78; The fire-ant of Brazil, 78; The thread-worm, 86; Canary bird dying of remorse, 94; The trading rat, 102; Spider aeronauts, 106; Argus pheasants of Sumatra, 110; The mocking bird, 118; The cherry ant, 118; Ballooning spiders, 122; Crickets, 122; On the usefulness of insectivorous spiders, 126; Field mice fishing, 126; The beds or nests of the chub, 126; Lace used by a bird in building a nest, 127; The star-fish, 134; Buffalo birds of Java, 134; Nest of the weaver bird, 134; Collecting edible birds' nests in Borneo, 142; Sagacity of a cat-bird, 150; On the poison of the honey bee, 158; On the rearing of ostriches, 158; The cardinal grosbeak, 158; A tame Siamang ape, 167; The owl as an enemy to birds, 174; The tree-toad as a barometer, 189; Burrowing spiders, 189; The song sparrow, 194; The Carolina wren, 194; A fresh-water sponge from Mexico, 198; On the changes produced by cultivation of the soil upon the increase of wild animals in N. Y. and Penna., 210; The winter wren, 213; The golden-crested kinglet, 213; The crested titmouse, 213; A useful acarus, 214; A fish-globe, 214; Galls and gall-flies, 218; White-throated sparrow, 219; Meadow lark, 219; The screech owl, 220; Blue birds and English sparrows, 222; Seals in fresh water lakes, 230; Social life of Arctic birds, 230; The flying fish, 238; Tropical fire-flies, 238; Curious birds' nests, 238; The Saras crane, 242; White scavenger vulture. 242; How insects breathe, 245; The eider-duck. 246; The tiger, 250; Blind mosquitoes, 254; The elephant, 258; Moles as soil makers, 262; The manis of Ceylon, 266; The orang-utan, 266; Sympathy among birds, 270; The clam, 274; The English song-thrush, 278; The Razor shell, 282; The edible mussel, 282; Phosphorescence, 286; Barnacles, 290; Crabs, 290; The lady crab, 298; California woodpecker, 302; The natica, 261, 267, 306; The scallop, 306; The cat-bird, 309; The slipper shell, 314: Boring molluscs, 314, 346; The swift-footed sand crab, 314; The bee, 318; The hermit thrush, 318; The king crab, 322; Sponges, 322; Polyps, 330; Sea gulls, 338; Soft-shelled turtles, 342; Intelligence of a gorilla, 342; The teredo, 346; The foraging ants of Brazil, 350; Serpulas, 354; Cilia of the lower animals, 361; The circulation of molluscs, &c., 362; The butterfly of the milk weed, 382; Bluebirds and wrens, 382; A peculiar beetle, 399; Spiders and spider showers, 406.
Naturalist in Timor-Lout and Timor. Experience of a, 139. 147.
Nebulæ not all clusters of stars, 102.
Need of watchfulness. The, 4.
Negroes. Self-sacrifice of two Senegal, 308.
New Jersey. Remarks on the geological character, &c., of, 170.
Newton John. Remark of, on diminishing human misery, 194.
New York. Notice of a benevolent movement for the help of sick children in, 22.
Notice of an movement in, against legislative enactments in favor of any creed, &c., 343.
Newsboy. Instructive incident connected with a, 229.
Newspapers. Protest against reading, on the First-day of the week, 182.
The great bulk of matter in the, below the level of refined conversation, 255.
Newton, N. J. Account of the first settlement of Friends near, 371.
Notes of a Southern trip, 378. 386. 394. 402. 410.
Novels. Remarks of John Newton upon, 281.
Norway. Notice of a religiously-minded people in, seeking light, 302.

Oaths. A Judge's statement of the uselessness of, 119.
Comments on, as involving a religious test, 198.
Incident connected with "kissing the book," in judicial, 207.
Notice of a treatise on, 319.
Oasis. Proposed formation of a new, by Russians, near the Oxus River, 270.
Obituary notices. Remarks on the preparation of, 271.
On the service to others of suitable, 307.
Obscenity. A bill for the punishment of, in New Jersey, 278.
Ocean. On the effect of gravitation in heaping up the waters of the, along the continents, 375.
Offering rewards. Remarks on the practice of, as encouraging dishonesty, 18.
Oh, ye mothers. Remarks on the spoiling of children, entitled, 29.
Oleomargarine. On the process of making, 262.
"One thing is needful," 6.
Opium. Notice of a protest of missionaries against the traffic in, with China, 54.
Memorial against the cultivation of, in China, 383.
Oranges. Frozen, said not to be unwholesome, 254.
Oriental governments. On the characteristics of, 10.

Orkney and Shetland Islands. Reminiscences of the, 226. 236.
"Our needs." Essay entitled, 49.
Our winter songsters, 194. 213. 219.
Outward and the inward. Essay entitled, The, 301.
Oxygen gas. Account of the liquifying of, 86.

Palestine. Simliarity of manners, &c., of the present inhabitants of, with those of the time of our Saviour, 117.
Paper from hop vines. Notice of, 102.
On the manufacture of Tonkin, 158.
Notice of a chimney made of, 326.
Parsee cemetery near Bombay. Account of the, 149.
Parsons Jacob, a chief of sinners, saved. Narrative of, 274.
Pay your debts, 318.
Peanut. Notice of the cultivation of, in Virginia, 394. 402.
Pearls. On artificial, 254.
Penalty. On the certainty of, for wrong-doing, 43.
Penington Isaac. On justification, by, 109.
On the sweetness and profit of being sufferers for God, 167.
Testimony of, to the outward coming and work of Christ in the heart, 388.
Person. Remarks on using the term, in connection with the Creator, 371.
Penn William. Testimony of, concerning his religious belief, 3.
On the way of redemption, and falling from it, by, 29.
On the effects of a growth in grace, by, 77.
Testimony of, to Christ's coming, both in flesh and spirit, 84.
Testimony of, to the universality of Divine grace, 85. 86. 162.
Reasons by, for the close manner of preaching by the early Friends, 97.
Testimony of, respecting the work of Christ in the world before his visible appearance in the flesh, 106. 295.
Christianity, a belief in; and true Christians those who obey the Light of Christ, 109. 162.
On the necessity of repentance previous to justification, 116.
Declaration of, respecting the belief of Friends concerning the Scriptures, 138. 181.
On the nature of acceptable worship, 148.
On idolatry in religion, by, 156.
Testimony of, to the Light of Christ, 86. 157. 206. 293.
Testimony of, to the nobility of the gospel dispensation, 164.
On the doctrine of Friends, in regard to the ministry, 205.
Remarks on the character of, as a legislator, 215.
Religious exercise of, and prayer, on behalf of Philadelphia, 260.
Appeal of, to all Christians to see if they have been baptized with Christ's baptism, 357.
On the need of all people to receive Christ into their heart, 374.
Pennsylvania Hospital. Notice of a circular of, respecting a dispensary for mental disorders, 199.
Petroleum. On the use of, as fuel on steamboats, 158.
Phillips John. Biographical notice of, and account of a visit to, 154.
Rachel. Lines on the death of, 380.
Phosphorus not combustible in perfectly dry oxygen gas, 262.
Phosphorescence in the forests of Sumatra. Notice of, 286.
Pictured rocks of West Virginia. Notice of, 318.
Picturesque not to be valued in comparison with the comfortable. The, 293.
Pike Joseph. Remarks of, on the maintenance of the discipline, 5.
Pitfield Elizabeth. Anecdote of the late, 148.
Pitt George. Observations of, on the unselfish and honest character of natives of India, 68.
Observations of, on the Chinese, in China and San Francisco, 100.
Plants. The passion flower, 11; The drosera, 18; The Upas tree of Java, 38; The cone flower, 45; The nettle, 45; The Balata tree, 54; The pitcher plant, 67; The papyrus, 138; Arctic plants, 182; Notice of certain trees, &c., of S. California, 222; The decaying roots of trees sometimes injurious to vegetation, 230; The edelweiss, 238; Fossil fungi, 238; The fig plants of Java, 278; Candelabra cactus, 302; The Myrmecodia tuberosa, 326; The white cedar, 339; The Scuppernong grape, 394; The whistling tree, 398; Chorogi, 399; The cowitch, 410; The cypress, 410; The Pisonia grandis of Australia, 415.
Plants found near Bridgeport, N. J., 57.
in the pine barrens, &c., N. J., 66.
On the number of seeds in certain, 74.
in New Jersey. On certain, 74.
Observations on the fertilization of, &c., 84. 109. 131.
Notice of the growth of, in cold soil, 86.
Observations on the seeds of, 116.
observed during an autumn walk, 122.
Luxuriant growth of, near volcanic centres in Java, 142.
On the absorption of oxygen by the roots of, 150.
On the growth of buds of, 203. 210.
Observations on leguminous, 210.
The growing of, recommended to protect embankments from washing, 294.
Connection between a fungus and the roots of some, 342.
Statistics of the number of flowering, 382.
observed in Virginia. Notice of, 387.
On the struggle for existence among, 390.
Cinchona, said not to yield quinine when grown in European hot-houses, 399.
Notice of balls of leaves of certain, 415.
Notice of growth of fruits at night, 415.
The seeds of certain, to be frozen before germinating, 415.
Pleasures of sense. On the emptiness of the, 158.
Plainness and simplicity of dress maintained by the Mennonites. Observations on the testimony to, 154.
Poetry.—Original.—In the forest, 28; To the old building at Westtown, 68; Watched and kept, 93; Thy birth-day, 100; Wild roses in autumn, 108; The drifting boat, 148; The dead millionaire, 164; A memory, 164; Musings, 181; The death of the year, 181; The old meeting-house, 188; Off to school, 196; The old meeting-place, 204; The three waters, 212; Monitions, 212; Waiting, 220; Keep thy faith, 244; Lines, 317; Contentment, 317; The coming of his feet, 324; At the sunset window, 364; An evening retrospect, 372, 392; "Soon it will be all rest," 380; The maniac prisoner, 380; Spring. A sonnet, 389; A leaf from a diary, 412.
Poetry.—Selected.—Acts, words, and thoughts, 404; "As a mother comforteth," 388; Building on the sand, 100; Blown by the breath of God, 124; The Broom, 317; Commonplace, 188; Consolation, 268; Calling the angels in, 284; Come unto me, 356; The city waif, 380; A day in the country, 4; Dawn, 141; Dandelions, 308; En voyage, 317; For somebody's sake, 20; "For my sake," 20; The Father's voice, 396; Going to school, 156; Guard your words, 204; The gardener, 237; God's peace, 276; Going to district school, 300; The homestead, 220; Hilda spinning, 292; Idleness, 13; Long life, 76; Labor, 108; Like the ivy, 116; Lines on the death of Rachel C. Bartram, 172; Little foxes, 196; Little ministries, 252; Lines, 260; Lines, 268; The loom of life, 268; Little deeds, 308; As I came down from Lebanon, 276; Life's threshold, 284; My guest, 84; Mother's way, 172; A mother's prayer, 308; Martyrdom, 348; Not as I will, 132; The name upon the window pane, 284; Night, 292; The old home, 28; The old homestead, 52; Over the fence, 68; Our rural home, 124; An old proverb, 237; One step more, 260; One little rhyme, 324; One at a time, 324; Our rural home, 333; Out of sight, 333; Once and again, 348; Purity, 116; A quarrel, 244; Remember not the sins of my youth, 84; Revelation, 300; Resting in God, 324; Sleep, 4; Summer-time, 13; Suffering and Trust, 36; St. John the aged, 44; A still day in autumn, 100; Surprised, 132; On silent worship, 188; Sending the baby to school, 228; Stillness, 252; A song of summer, 396; Summer in town, 412; "Thy burden," 13; Two maids, 36; Tribute to the memory of Micajah Collins, 60; Through life, 76; Thoughts in a religious meeting, 108; Think gently of the erring, 340; The three little chairs, 340; This, too, shall pass away, 340; Turn the carpet, 356; The unfruitful tree, 124; Thanksgiving, 156; Vastness, 132; The wood giant, 76; What constitutes a church? 84; Watching for Montezuma, 93; A Whittier reunion, 116; John Wycliffe, 148; What is heaven? 156; What sickness means, 172; Where shall I die? 228; Waiting for spring, 276; A word of cheer, 348; Within, 356; A winged thing, 388; The wild sower, 404; "When the tale of bricks is doubled," 404.
Preaching the gospel. Remarks on the duty of, and what should be the effects of, 282.
Preaching. Notice of a society in England to encourage open air, 335.
Presbyterians. Notice of the resignation of a minister of, on account of doctrines, 94.
Presbyterians. Notice of a change of belief among, respecting the condemnation of infants, &c., 119.
Notice of a protest of, against the introduction of organs in their places for worship, 343.
Comments on encouraging pecuniary offerings among, at the close of religious meetings, 343.
Marriage with a sister, aunt or niece of a deceased wife not objected to by, in Canada, 399.
Resolutions of, reprobating violence towards the Chinese on the Pacific Coast, 407.
Prevention of cruelty to animals, Notice of the proceedings of the Penna. Society for the, 255.
Prisoner comforted. A, 405.
Progress. No upward, without upward struggling, 342.
On different kinds of, 342.
Population. Statistics of, 374.
Portugal. Religious freedom in, not granted by its constitution, 70.
Poor. On a judicious means of relieving the, 229.
Postal savings banks. Proposed establishment of, in the United States, 294.
Providential warnings conveyed in dreams, 20.
deliverances, 341.
guidance, 67.
workings in the history of nations, 166.
Providential call to duty. Many an undesired interruption is a, 342.
Providences. On a belief in special, 341,
Provident Savings Bank. Notice of the object of the, 391.
Property. On the obligation so to use our, as not to increase the evil in the world, 93.
Prayer. On the necessity of waiting upon God, for the qualification for acceptable, 93.
Psalm-singing as it is commonly conducted, 125.

Queensland. Notice of the action of, in suppressing slavery, 114.
Questionable amusements. Remarks upon the duty of Christians to avoid, 26.
Quickening spirit. Essay entitled, The, 123.
Quiet. The disturbance of, an accompaniment of growth, 374.
Quippus of the ancient Peruvians. Account of the, 279.

Raffling. Objections to, stated, 102.
Railroad. A passenger on a, reproved, 382.
Railroads. On the danger to, from the pounding of locomotives, 54.
On the Leslie rotary snow-shovel for, 309.
Rags. Method of separating wool and cotton in, 230.
Randolph John of Roanoke. Renouncement by, of infidel views, 54.
Ray of hope. Essay entitled, A, 11.
Reading matter. On the evils of a blamable curiosity in regard to, 57.
Instance of the sorrowful effects of bad, upon a boy, 87.
Plain questions to individuals respecting their, 310.
Murder by a boy, following the perusal of dime novels, 383
Religion. On the need for the light of Christ, to distinguish a counterfeit, from true, 49.
On head and heart, 90.
On the necessity of repentance as the first step in, 114.
On idolatry in, 156.
The light of Christ, the guide in, 157.
On the transformations of Satan in the guise of, 173.
On the need of patience in the work of, 205.
A, worth having, 228.
No, without a self-denying and godly life, 255.
The experience of John Barclay in, 260.
On the spirituality of true, 301.
Remarks on an impulsive, outward, now prevailing, 347.
True, leads away from abstruse and subtle questioning, 352.
Religious condition of Europe. A view of the, 6.
liberty defined, 14.
ease. On the dangers attending a state of, 73.
belief. Remarks of L. W. Bacon on frequent equivocation in clergymen in subscribing to statements of, 110.
hallucination in the Bahamas. Notice of a recent outbreak of, 222.
Repent and be converted, 114.
Responsibility. On the personal, of every one, 287.
Redemption. The way of, and falling from it, 29.
from all iniquity. Essay entitled, 155.

XUM

Reproof. On the kind and restoring spirit in which, should be administered, 348.
Reese Charles, a former slave. Account of, 52.
"Reverend." On the objections to the use of, as an honorary title, 253.
"Revivalism." A description of the nature and effects of modern, 270.
Rhode Island Quarterly Meeting. Extract from an epistle of, in 1809, on love and harmony, 133.
Riches. The abundance of often a snare to their possessor, 205.
Riches lent. Remarks on the responsibility of rich men as stewards, entitled, 205.
Right. On knowing that we are, 36.
Righteous. On the restraining power over evil in a community of the, 142.
Rivers. On the amount of sediment in certain, 5.
Robert College, Constantinople. Account of the origin and results of, 299.
Roberts John. Honest boldness of, in defence of his religion, 405.
Roman emperors. Account of the recent discovery of the tombs of two, 91.
Rome. Notice of the tomb of Galba, at, 309.
Robbers' auction in the Black Forest. The, 374.
Roman Catholic. Incidents connected with the convincement of a, of the principles of Friends, 43.
Roman Catholics. Proposed substitution of English for Latin in public services among, 62.
Reverence of, in the middle ages, for relics, 84.
Superstitious reverence of, for images, in Rome, 127.
A bequest for prayers for the dead by, declared legal, 214.
Notice of the decrees of the late Council of, in Baltimore, 319.
Notice of the decision of the late Council of, against educating their children in public schools, and comments, 327.
Roraima in British Guiana. Account of the ascent of, 179. 186.
Rundell Samuel. Testimonial to the effectual ministry of, 413.
Russia. The collection of tithes prohibited in certain provinces of, 206.
Notice of discussions among Dissenters from the Greek Church in, 110.
Notice of persecution of the Stundists in, 255.
Proposed proselyting in, 271.
Notice of Spiritual Christians in, 390.
Despotic police regulations in, 396.
Russian dissenters. Notice of publications of, issued in Roumania, 206.
Ruth and Boaz. Accuracy of the Scripture narrative concerning, 85.
Rush, Dr. Benjamin. Notice of the essays of, in favor of Christian reforms, 92.

Sabbath. The First-day of the week not the, 231.
Saccharine from coal tar. Notice of, 326.
Sackcloth. On the wearing of, as a sign of humiliation, 140.
Sahara. Notice of recent explorations in the, 5.
Salvation army. On the proceedings of the, 255.
Notice of a division in sentiment in the, respecting military titles. 407.
Salutation of love to the aged members of the Society of Friends. A, 99.
Sanctification. On the doctrine of Friends in regard to, 395.
Sandwich Islands. Observations of Titus Coan upon the moral condition of the, 236.
San José Monthly Meeting. Account of the discontinuance of, 35.
Remarks on the arbitrary proceedings connected with the laying down of, 39. 82. 87. 127. 143.
Savery William. Account of the ministry of, at the execution of a criminal, 43.
Scattergood Thomas. Account of a remarkable warning given by, at Rahway, 20.
Drawn to preach at the execution of a criminal, 43.
Advice of, to one engaged in the ministry, 125.
Scientific Notes, &c. 5. 13. 21. 29. 37. 46. 54. 61. 69. 78. 94. 102. 109. 118. 126. 134. 142. 150. 158. 166. 174. 182 189. 197. 206. 214. 222. 230. 238. 245. 254. 262. 270. 278. 286. 294. 302. 309. 318. 326. 334. 342. 350. 358. 366. 374. 382. 390. 398. 406. 414.
School. Account of a successful normal, for colored youth in Alabama, 31.
Notice of a fire at North Carolina Boarding, 55.
Appeal on behalf of the above, 71. 278.
Discrimination against colored persons not allowed in the Girls' High, at Vincennes, Ind, 407.
Schools. On the introduction of temperance textbooks into, in different States, 38.
Intellectual not athletic culture the object of, 62.
The use of tobacco prohibited in Government, in France, 62.
Notice of the decrees of the late Roman Catholic Council against educating their children in public, 327.
School learning. Religious concern of Joseph Snowdon in reference to, 406.
Scoffer. No, can enter the kingdom of heaven, 406.
Scott Job. Remarks of, on his spiritual condition, 84.
Sceptic answered. The, 350.
Sea. Pestilential atmosphere purified by the, 399.
Sea shore. Observations on the sand of the, 170.
Sea-side rambles. Essays entitled, 261. 267. 274. 282. 290. 298. 306. 314. 322. 330. 338. 346. 354. 361. 370.
Secret societies. Remark of General Grant on the danger of all, 263.
Remarks on the objections to, 343.
Selections and reflections. Essays entitled, 4. 12.
Selim, the Algerine convert. Account of, 372.
Self-defence. On Solomon's system of, 94.
Self-righteousness. On the desolating results of, in the professing church, 90.
Self-sufficiency rebuked. Incident entitled, 259.
Sewage drained into a "sink-hole." Notice of, 110.
Sermon by George Withy. Passages from a, 356. 362.
Shoe pegs. Notice of the large production of, in Vermont, 70.
Sharpless John. Notice of the murder of, 135.
Reflections on the violent death of, 167. 254.
Shetland Islands. Account of a religious visit to, by Sarah Squire, in 1835, 169. 177. 185. 193. 201. 209. 217.
Reminiscences of the, 226. 236.
Shipwrecked soul. Extract entitled, A, 366.
Short botanical trip. A, 57.
Shells. Observations on sea-side, 261. 274. 282. 290. 298. 306.
Shipley Lydia. On the character of, 181.
Shipwreck of a vessel laden with coffee. Remarkable, 302.
Silence. On the ministry of, 141.
Extract from the Life of Lady Guion, entitled, The witness of, 300.
Sight. First impressions of a blind person recovering, 134.
Sin to be overcome by walking in the Spirit, 358.
Singing of psalms, &c., as commonly conducted. Remarks of Geo. Dillwyn on the incongruity of, 125.
singing in meetings for Divine worship. On, 213.
in an irreverent manner rebuked by William Williams, 257.
Skating by sail. Notice of, 158.
Skepticism. Experience of the Princess Alice in regard to, 263.
Slave. Faith and religious experience of a former, in N. Carolina, 293.
Slavery. A reminiscence of, in the case of Charles Reese, of Virginia, 52.
On the effect of Anthony Benezet's treatise upon, in opening the eyes of others to the sin of, 92.
Notice of the result of official inquiry into, at Queensland, and the return of the captives, 114.
Practical testimony borne by Abner Woolman against, in 1767, 381.
Slave trade. On the horrors of the present, in Africa, 105.
Notice of an address to persons engaged in the, in Rhode Island, in 1806, by Elizabeth Mott, 130.
Small-pox. Statistics of the value of vaccination in preventing, 254.
Snake venom. On the powerful poison of, 398.
Snowdon Joseph. Encouraging belief of the late, in regard to the Society of Friends, 409.
Concern of, against placing too high a value on literary acquirements, &c., 406.
Soap made of imperial ashes. Account of the discovery of the tombs of Roman emperors, entitled, 91.
Sorrow. Threatening, often changed to a blessing, 124.
Spain. Alleged fraud in the application of money sent to, for charitable purposes, 175.
Sponges. On the collection of, in the Bahamas, 398.
Spontaneous combustion due to hot air or hot steam, 262.
Squire Sarah. Account of the life and religious character of, 161.
Notice of a religious visit by, to the Shetland Islands, 169. 177. 185. 193. 201. 209. 217.
St. Augustine's, Fla. Notice of a visit to, 162.
Statistics of the expenditure on account of intoxicating drinks, &c., in Great Britain and Ireland, 279.
Star. Notice of a newly discovered, 70.
Notice of a photograph of a, 78.
Stars. Apparatus for taking photographs of, 358.
Observations on the colors of, 367.
Notice of the winter constellations of, 202.
A nebula in the Pleiades discovered by photography, 390.
Steel. On the apparently treacherous nature of, 254.
Story Thomas. Observations of, on Divine worship and communion in silence, 174.
Reproof administered by, to an airy priest, 405.
An unfaithful member rebuked by, 412.
Sun-stroke. On the treatment of, 86.
"Sunny spots," or Lessons in Life. Encouragement to the Christian, entitled, 51.
Superstition in Italy. Notice of, 127. 413.
Sufferers for God. On the sweetness and profit of being, 167.
Sulphurous acid in the air of towns. On the effects of, 54.
Summary of Events, 7. 15. 23. 24. 39. 47. 55. 63. 71. 80. 87. 95. 104. 111. 119. 127. 136. 143. 151. 160. 168. 176. 183. 192. 200. 207. 215. 223. 232. 239. 248. 256. 263. 272. 279. 287. 295. 304. 311. 320. 328. 336. 344. 352. 360. 368. 376. 384. 392. 400. 408, 416.
Remarks in reference to the preparation of the, 7.
Sun. Conclusion of a scientist that the color of the, is blue, 70.
Superstition. Notice of, in Spain, 111.
promoted by images and statues, 389.
Sympathy. On the powerful effects of Christian, 294.
A child's need of, 317.

Taber Phœbe. Biographical sketch of, 323.
Taber Francis. Anecdote of, 390.
Tale-bearing. An effective way to discourage, is to take no interest in such recitals, 292.
Telescope. Notice of the 30-inch refractory, of the Pulkowa observatory, 126.
Ten weeks' trip to England. A, 113. 121. 129. 137. 145. 153.
Temperance hospitals. Notice of, 367.
Society. Notice of the proceedings of the National, 367.
Temptation. On the necessity of constantly watching against, 75.
Essay on, 277.
On tampering with, 367.
Theatre. A proprietor of a, in Philadelphia, fined for exposing indecent show bills, 118.
Enforcement of a rule by the Ohio Wesleyan University against attending the, 159.
On the growing evil of the, and suggestions on means of discouraging it, 171.
Testimony of Janauschek, a noted actress, against the, 172.
Testimony of a manager of a, in New York, to the great evil of the, to the young, 222.
Remarks of Hannah More on the, 227.
Comments on the temptations of the, 228.
A lover of the, cannot be a living Christian, 255.
Thomas. James, of Goshen, Pa. Anecdote of, and remarks on the Christian character of, 67.
Thomas. Hannah, of Goshen, Pa. Anecdote of, 163.
Tidal bore. Account of the, 230.
Tight lacing. Illustration of the dangers of, to women, 271.
Time. Remarks by William Penn on the misspending of, 210.
Titles. On the impropriety of using honorary, 253.
Timor-Laut and Timor. Experience of a naturalist in, 139. 147.
Tonga Islands. Notice of a Wesleyan secession in the, 190.
Tobacco. Notice of the effects of smoking, in producing heart disease, 61.
The use of, prohibited in Government schools in France, 62.
prohibited at Oberlin College, 94.
Notice of act of the New Hampshire legislature against, 94.
Impoliteness in the use of, 119. 359.
Proposed legislation in Massachusetts against, 238.
Indifference produced by, to the comfort of others, 271.
Reason for not using, 294.
An objection to the use of, by Mennonites, 302.
Advice of Phœbe Taber to her children against the use of, 323.

Tobacco. On the frequent trespass upon the rights of others by users of, 359.
Tract Association of Friends of Phiadelphia. Notice of the proceedings of, since its establishment, &c., 269.
Notice of recent publications of, &c., 359.
Tract Repository. Notice of the report of the publisher of, for 1885, 190.
Tract Society. Notice of the proceedings of the American, 367.
Tracts. Remarks on the conflict of feeling sometimes occasioned in distributing, 378.
Trials. The blessings of, rightly borne, 318.
Tribulation purgeth away sin, 323.
Tree. The rings of a, represent years only when deep-rooted, and in northern climates, 86.
Trees. The death of pine, in Russia, attributed to a fungus, 238.
On the age of, 367.
Tree planting in Kansas. Notice of the extent of, 13.
Trust in the Lord. On the necessity of knowing a fresh qualification for religious labor, entitled, 242.
Tuchold William. Incident in the life of, showing the result of faithfulness, 83.
Tunnels. Notice of an increase of temperature in, 102.
Two cups. Essay entitled, The, 66.
Two years in the jungle. Extracts from the narrative of a hunter and naturalist, 234. 242. 250. 258. 266.
Tunesassa. Notice of the late destruction by fire of school building at, 247.
Type dust. On a method to prevent the accumulation of, 318.

Uintahite. Notice of, 230.
Unitarians. Notice of the drifting of a conference of, from the profession of Christianity, 399.
Universality of Divine Grace. Extract from Barclay's Apology, showing the doctrines of Friends in reference to, 151.
Universalist answered. An, 317.
University of Penna, Notice of an appeal of, for gifts of pamphlets, &c., 408.
Upland swamp. Notice of a botanical excursion to an, 332.

Vaccine matter. On the preparation of, 197.
Vaccination. On the philosophy of, 326.
Vanity of young men in having fine clothes, &c., a childish folly. The, 114.
Female, confounded, 150.
Vegetable for the table. Notice of chorogi, a new, 399.
Ventilation. Novel effect of improved, in a mill, 86.
Verran, a Cornish miner. Account of the heroic conduct of, &c., 188.
Vesuvius. Notice of some of the more remarkable eruptions of, 19.
Account of a recent visit to, while in eruption, 125.
Virginia. Notice of life on a large plantation in southern, 402.
Vision of Joseph Hoag, 45.
Visit to Egg Harbor City, N. J. A, 18. to Caln Quarterly Meeting. A, 44. to Iowa, 90.
to Ohio. Notes on a, 98.
to Merchantville, N. J., 116.
to the Western Quarterly Meeting, Pa., 138. to the sea shore of New Jersey, 170.
Visitations of Divine grace to children. Incidents of, and reflections, 27.
Voice within. Striking narrative of the religious experience of an Italian peasant, entitled, The, 371.

Waiting upon the Lord. On the duty of, 58.
"Walk in the Spirit, and ye will not fulfill the lusts of the flesh," 255.
Walk down the lane. Observations on natural objects, &c., entitled, A, 74.
Walks in my garden. Observations on the fertilization of plants, &c., 84. 131.
War. Remarks on a weak argument for, 22.
John Bright's view of the military system of Europe, 30.
On the testimony of the Moravians against, 36.
Comments on the above, 131.
Examination of the murderous customs of, as compared with those of former ages, 58.
On the savage ferocity of, in the middle ages, 65. 76.
On the close relationship of, to murder, to robbery and lying, 76.
On the loss by, to China and Japan, as compared with arbitration, 79.
On so-called "civilized," 82.
War On the attitude of the church in regard to, 83.
Remarks on a growing sentiment against, 110.
Notice of the emigration of Mennonites from Russia to avoid conscription, 115.
as it appears to an eye witness, 124.
Notice of an address by Elizabeth Mott to the legislature of Rhode Island, during the revolutionary, 130.
On the military spirit in Germany, 131.
Contradictions concerning, in the professed advocates of peace, 131.
Opposition to, declared by candidates for re-election in England, 134.
On the ancient custom of shooting an arrow as a declaration of, 150.
Inscription proposed by Dr. Benjamin Rush for the door of the Department of, at Washington, 150.
Remarks on improving opportunities as they occur for bearing testimony against, 151, Mankind becoming less disposed to glorify the deeds of, 157.
Horrors of, depicted by an eye witness, 187.
A result of the Tonquin, the slaughter of thousands of converts of the Catholic missions in Annam, 214.
Notice of, arising from union of church and state, 214.
Notice of the efforts of the English Peace Society during the late election, 215.
Appeal of a member of the French Chamber for the application of the golden rule in the, with Tonquin, 222.
The wretched condition of the Italian peasantry consequent upon, 230.
Notice of efforts to promote a feeling against, in tha French Chamber of Deputies, 238.
Deliverance of a Friend from injury during the late, in the United States, 293.
Hopeful symptoms in the Parliament of England in reference to peace, 327.
Pictures representing, brutalizing in their tendency, 335.
On the greatly increased cost of equipments for, 359.
Notice of a protest against erecting statues of military men in Philadelphia, 359.
Comments on the effects of the advocacy of, by professed ministers of the gospel, 360.
The art of, the great study of the ruling classes of Europe, 375.
Observations on the devastation resulting from the late, in Virginia, 378.
Notice of the imprisonment of two young men in the island of Jersey, for their testimony against, 383.
Article on the incompatibility of, with Christianity, entitled, "Thoughts for Decoration day," 383.
Incidents showing the safety of adhering to convictions of duty in time of, 386.
The rearing of statues to military heroes one of the evil results of the late, 389.
Notice of the testimony borne by Friends and others in Virginia against, during the late, 394.
Water. On the loss of soil by solution in, 21.
On the importance of obtaining pure, for domestic purposes, 46.
Notice of a legal decision in regard to polluting a supply of, 61.
Effects of a tidal wave, 110.
On the unwholesomeness of rain, in cities, 174.
Observations on the purification of, 294.
On obtaining fresh, from salt ice, 309.
Notice of the depth to which sunlight will penetrate, 358.
Wealth. An abundance of, may prove a great injury to the possessor, 205.
Weather. Asphalt pavements in Washington, D. C., nearly melted by the recent hot, 21.
Webster Daniel. Remarks of, on the beauties of the morning, 126.
Westtown Boarding School. Account of the plan and progress of the new building for, 178. 391.
Remarks on the condition of, at a late visit, 391.
"What might have been." Extract entitled, 157.
"What sort?" Remarks on a false morality, entitled, 52.
Wheeler Daniel. Account of the visit of, to Ohio Yearly Meeting in 1839, 50.
Wilbur John. Remarks on the doctrines and standing of, as a minister of the gospel, 415.
Williams William. Dying testimony of, to the gospel of Christ, 61. 266.
Account of the life and religious labors of, 225. 233. 241. 249. 257. 265.
Remarkable interview of a colored man with, 265.
Who will die for her? Incident entitled, 308.
Withy George. Incident connected with the ministry of, 43.
Passages from a sermon by, in 1822, 356. 362.
Witness for truth in every soul. A, 196.
What doth hinder us? Essay entitled, 250.
Wheat. Mummy, not capable of germinating, 286.
Whittier College, Iowa. Notice of the burning of, 182.
Wife-beating. Whipping proposed as a legal punishment for, 399.
Winter walk. Essay entitled, A, 203. 210. 218.
Wood thrush as a songster. The, 1.
Wood. On preventing the rotting of, 54.
The durability of, affected by the position of 222.
Women. On the general correctness of the intuitive perceptions of, 158.
Educated, preferring employment in households to employment in shops, 390.
The incongruity of young, assuming scholastic degrees under nursery names, 407.
Woolman Abner. Extracts from writings of, addressed to his children, 381.
Word of exhortation. Essay entitled. A, 213.
Worldly spirit. Remarks of A. Benezet against a, 218.
Worship. On the restriction of freedom of, in Saxony, 22.
On the cause of spiritual coldness and death in a meeting for, 31.
The renting of pews in places of, disapproved of by a Methodist, 71.
On the doctrines of Friends in regard to, 95, 148. 159. 301.
The reading of the Scriptures in meetings for, a departure from the principles of Friends, 142.
On the enjoyment of the Divine presence in silence during meetings for, 174. 213.
Reflections on the object of the attendance of meetings for, 213.
On the blessing of becoming acquainted with true spiritual, 301.
On the attendance of meetings for, under difficulties, 354.
Worth Ebenezer. Incident related by, of a Divine visitation to one of his neighbors, 163.
Wool. Notice of a method of separating, from cotton, 230.

Yearly Meeting, Baltimore, 1885. Notice of a minute of, respecting baptism and the supper, 143.
Notice of proceedings of, 158.
Yearly Meeting, Canada. Correction of misstatements made by the London deputation concerning, 30.
Notice of the reversal of the decision of Judge Proudfoot respecting Friends of, 246. 327.
1886. Notice of proceedings of, 399.
Dublin, 1886. Notice of the proceedings of, 375.
Iowa (smaller body), 1885. Notice of proceedings of, 90.
Iowa (larger body), 1885. Notice of proceedings of, 87. 127.
Comments on the proceedings of, 95.
Indiana, 1885. Notice of proceedings of, 103.
Statistics of, 351.
Kansas (smaller body), 1885. Notice of proceedings of, 135.
Notice of address issued by, 222.
London, 1738. Advice of, on silent waiting in religious meetings, 350.
London, 1747. Advice of, in regard to plainness of speech and apparel, 309.
London, 1796. Testimony of, to the light of Christ in every man, 356.
1790. Epistle of, 291.
1806. Extract from an epistle of, 5.
London, 1885. Comments on the defective character of the General Epistle of, 2. 6.
1885. On the report of the Home Mission Committee to, 37.
Notice of the conference of, respecting correspondence with Yearly Meetings in America, 246. 279. 331.
1886. Notice of proceedings of, 375.
New England (smaller body), 1885. Notice of proceedings of, 14.
New England (larger body), 1886. Notice of proceedings of, 391.

XUM

Yearly Meeting. New York, 1886. Notice of proceedings of, 367. 392.
North Carolina, 1885. Minute of, against the use of the "ordinances" by Friends, 38.
Remarks of a Friend, on visiting in the limits of, 38.
Notice of "revival" meeting held during, 55.
Philadelphia, 1825. Account of the proceedings of, by Micajah Collins, and comments, 9.
Comments on the attitude of, 146. 331.
1886. Remarks on the approach of, 275.
1886. Notice of the proceedings of, 303. 310.
Yearly Meeting. Philadelphia, 1886. Comments on subjects connected with the, 318. 320. 332.
Ohio. Remarks on the position of, &c., by Samuel Emlen, 331.
Ohio, 1839. Brief account of, 50.
1885. Account of the proceedings of, 79.
Observations made during a visit to, 98.
Western (smaller body), 1835. Notice of proceedings of, 94.
1885. Minute of, on the state of Society, 119.
Western (larger body), 1885. Notice of minute of, respecting those members of it who accept or administer the "ordinances," 14.
Yearly Meeting. Western (larger body), 1885. Notice of proceedings of, 94.
Comments on the proceedings of, 95.
Virginia Half-Year's Meeting. Remarks on the attendance of, 395.
Young man that could be trusted. Incident entitled, A, 404.
Youth. On the importance of yielding to Divine visitations in, 156.
On tempting baits and snares for the, 228.

Zeal of God, but not according to knowledge." Essay entitled, "A, 227.
Remarks on a false, 243.

XUM